Recognizing excellence in healthcare

SINCE 2015

What are the IHF Awards?

The IHF Awards recognize excellent projects, programmes, and services of hospitals and health service providers across the globe.

Celebrating 10 years of rewarding excellence in healthcare leadership, this year's winners will be announced during a unique Awards Gala on 12 November at the 48th IHF World Hospital Congress in Geneva, Switzerland.

Benefits for the winners

- Opportunity to highlight achievements and good practices.
- Visibility across the IHF's network including a video presentation, media interviews, and podcast.
- Attendance and recognition at the Awards Gala.
- A chance to celebrate success and strengthen a winner's reputation.
- Feature in the IHF Awards Digital Publication.
- Opportunity to present in a session at the World Hospital Congress.
